RE: Welcome to US South Communications, Inc.

Dear Customer:

We're delighted to welcome you to US South Communications, your new long distance telephone service provider. As announced in previous correspondence, because of a change in Comdata's business plans, your long distance service will be transferred from Comdata to US South, and US South is assuming full responsibility for your existing long distance communications services.

There will be no change in your rates, charges, or services and you will not be required to pay any switchover fees associated with the transfer. The only difference you will notice will be a change in the name on your invoice to US South. This letter is for your information only; no further action on your part is required. As a special gift for you, enclosed is a calling card with 90 free minutes of domestic calling. To activate your calling card, please call our new customer service number (800) 305-6008.

Even if you have arranged a preferred carrier freeze through your local service provider for your long distance services, you will be transferred to US South unless you have selected a different carrier before the transfer date. Your existing preferred carrier freeze on your long distance service will be lifted; and you must contact your local service provider to arrange a new freeze.

As one of our valued customers, you can be assured that Comdata and US South will work together to ensure that this transition to US South will be as seamless a process as possible. We recognize that you are free to select any carrier you choose as your service provider and to change carriers if you are not satisfied with the service you receive. Your service will be transferred to US South beginning on July 15, 2003. If you have any questions regarding your services or bills before July 15, 2003, please contact Comdata customer service at 1 (800) 228-3915.

If you have any questions regarding the transfer, your free calling card, information on US South services, or service provided beginning July 15, 2003, we would like to hear from you so please call your US South customer service representative at 1 (800) 305-6008.

Very truly yours,
